Thank you Ms. Ethridge,

The pre-trial conference is being held 3550 Hollywood Blvd, Hollywood, FL 33021, case number is COSO19002455. Its at 11am, not 9:30am. I was contacted regarding this case last Wednesday, 2 days after our pre-trial conference while I was waiting on an order on my motion to continue trial.

Scheduling is not the only issue here. We need at least until the next trial period to stipulate as to the trial exhibits and prepare witnesses as it appears we won't be able to complete discovery based on the Court's order issued yesterday. This case has never been continued, and we're not seeking to delay it any further than reasonable.

There are two additional personal circumstances I did not disclose due to the risk of it being published on another website if I include Mr. Colen here so am including him at the request of the Court, and I ask that the Court please consider them in scheduling a reasonable trial date.

On the same week that the Court issued the trial order, I was attacked by a random dog which severely injured my hand and broke my finger outside of a shopping center. I was in physical therapy for the next two months and I have the police report/animal control/hospital records to prove it, but I ask that it only be provided to the Court. 3 weeks after the incident, my immediate family member was sent to a hospital intensive care unit for 5 weeks, where I made at least 60 hospital visits between February and April. I have the medical records if the Court would like to view them.

I am just now regularly back at my office. At no time did I intentionally delay this matter, and I've come across several events beyond my control which has placed my client in the current situation through no fault of their own. We only ask for a reasonable continuance here in light of these circumstances.

Mr. Saleh,

Per the court, where is the scheduled pre-trial conference being held? Please provide the case number. Also, why was there no notice of conflict filed?
